

JEALOUSY

World-Wide Has Sprung Up

Between the Various Nations.

Demanding Indemnity From China.

Trying to Arrange Si de Deals—U. S. Does Not Concur.

Washington, March 9.—(Spl.)—World wide jealousy of one nation against another seems to have cropped out in the negotiations at Pekin.

While the State department believes the London dispatches of this morning are much overdrawn, it has had information for months that certain powers were trying to make side deals with China on the indemnity question. Accordingly it sent a note of instruction to its representatives in China and in Europe calling their attention to the position taken by the Administration early last fall, that the United States would not enter into such propositions on its part and disapproved of them on the part of others.

Until within a few days these self-seeking nations apparently had no show of success but recent advices to the State department indicate that their quest has been renewed and for this reason it was thought best to reiterate the instructions to Ambassadors and also to send copies of such instructions to China and the foreign officers of the various powers concerned.

This is Bryan's first visit here since before the election. He is in fine health and spoke enthusiastically of his paper. ## Buchtel College Notes.

The students met in Prof. Kolby's room and formed the Buchtel College Athletic Association. A constitution and by-laws was formulated and read by Prof. Orth. About fifty signed the constitution. It is proposed to make some changes from the plan that has been followed before. The constitution provides for a Board of Control to be composed of nine members, three from the faculty, three from the Alumni and three from the student body. This plan will insure a board composed of students alone. The membership fee is one dollar a year. It is hoped that every student both in the college and preparatory department, as well as every member of the Alumni and faculty, will become members of the Association.

The College Debating club will discuss the following question Monday night: "Resolved, That Congress Should Levy a Tax Upon the Manufacture of Oleomargarine." Mr. Warner and Mr. Bailey will affirm; Mr. Kolby and Mr. Price will deny. This is likely to prove a very slippery subject.

Mr. and Mrs. Milan Williams of Batavia, New York, were the guests of Aunty Brown Wednesday and Thursday. Mrs. Williams is a former student of Buchtel college, she having attended here seventeen years ago.

Prof. Spanton lectured at the First Universalist church Thursday night. His subject was, "What is it to Be a Christian?"

MINERS

In the Hazelton District

Gain a Number of Good Points.

Present Scale of Wages Continued.

Differences to be Adjusted With Miners Themselves.

Hazelton, Pa., March 9.—(Spl.)—The Lehigh Valley Co. this morning posted notices as did the Philadelphia and Reading companies at 39 collieries near Shamogun, notifying employees they would continue paying present scale of wages to miners and keep it in force until April 1, 1902.

They also reaffirmed their willingness to adjust minor differences with employees themselves. This is a decided gain for miners. It indicates, however, that operators have decided not to attend a joint conference.

GUILTY OF ASSAULT.

Jury Out Forty Eight Hours Before Reaching a Verdict—Resolution of Sympathy Adopted and Extended to Matthias Klink.

After deliberating 48 hours the jury in the case of the State vs. Philip Le Conte returned a verdict of guilty of assault.

The court immediately sentenced the defendant to 30 days' imprisonment and assessed a fine of $100 and the costs of prosecution.

This is the first jury, in many years, that has spent two nights in trying to agree. Late Friday afternoon, Judge Hayden had the jury called into the court room. He admonished them to put aside personal feeling and passion. Later the jury asked that the testimony of Mary Le Conte be read to them. This the court could not do. He gave it to the best of his recollection.

While the jurors were deliberating the residence and meat market of one of the jurors, Mat Klink, was destroyed by fire.

Saturday the jury adopted the following resolution:

"Whereas, we, the undersigned, a committee appointed by the regular petit jury (January term, 1901) of the Court of Common Pleas, of the county of Summit, and State of Ohio, learning of the recent loss, by fire, sustained by one of our panel, Mr. Matthias Klink, on behalf of the jury, beg to extend our heartfelt sympathy to him.

"Also to express to him our appreciation of his worth, integrity and ability; and his services as a juror.

"J. W. WARDEN,
"J. B. BETZ,
"J. M. COBB,

In Jail For Three Months Rather Than Pay a Judgment.

Roy Long will spend the next three months in the county jail. He has refused to pay a judgment of $150 returned against him in the case of the State on complaint of Maud Wagoner vs. Roy Long. She alleged that he was the father of her child. Long's attorney advised him to remain in jail and then take advantage of the insolvent debtor's act.

FRANCHISE WILL BE GRANTED.

County Commissioner S. W. Shepard of Ravenna, in response to an inquiry by telephone from the Democrat, stated at 2 o'clock this afternoon: "The Commissioners are now considering the Northern Ohio Traction Company's application for a franchise for a line from Kent to Ravenna, but the matter will occupy the entire afternoon."

"Will the franchise be granted?" was asked.

"Indications are that it will. The members of the Board seem favorable to such action."

"Has the Portage Lakes Traction Co. got a representative at the meeting?"

"No; evidently they have given up the idea of opposing the Everett syndicate."

The Northern Ohio Traction Co. is represented at the meeting by Attorneys A. S. Cole and C. B. Newton, of Ravenna.
